

Dear ALL!

The International Vygotsky Society invites you to take part in a conference this summer to discuss strategies for international cooperation between scholars interested in the Lev Vygotsky tradition in psychology. The conference will be organized by the Russian State University for the Humanities, the L. S. Vygotsky Institute of Psychology, the International L.S.Vygotsky Society, and the L.S.Vygotsky Fund. It will be held in Moscow, Russia. Final dates of the conference have not been set.

As part of the conference, we will spend a few days brain-storming about possible international projects of interest to the International Vygotsky Association, planning future conferences, creating an organizational structure, and establishing branches in different countries. In addition we will discuss our first major project: the publication of a new edition of all collected works of L.S. Vygotsky and of newly discovered documents from the Vygotsky archive (see additional information about this attached to this message).

Please submit your expression of interest to take part in this conference as soon as possible but no later than March 1th . E-mail your expression of interest, along with your name and academic degree, affiliation, topic of your interest, preferred e-mail address for further contacts, and some preferable dates in June-July for your travel:

invysoc@mail.ru

We will contact you with further information about registration, accommodations, and travel arrangements. We are aiming to organize this conference in June or July, but the dates will be decided later based on the preference of participants.

We hope to hear from you soon, and hope to welcome you to Moscow.

With best wishes,
